

A Culture of Literacy: December Edition

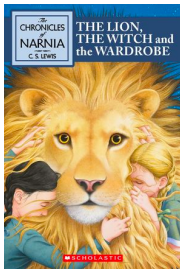

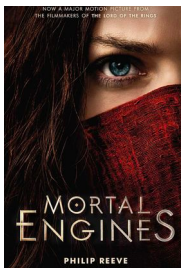

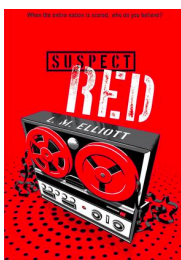

Jay Stream's goal is to create and maintain a culture of literacy in the community. Each month, we will highlight and offer books to support reading! These books are the best 'deals' from Scholastic in a variety of genres that are some great reads. We hope families and groups of friends will choose common books to share and discuss with each other.

We encourage all members of our community to read one of the highlighted books below!

These titles can be ordered online with a credit/debit card using the link and code on the opposite side of this form. Checks can be written to SCHOLASTIC BOOK CLUBS and submitted to the Jay Stream Innovation Center. And, if needed, cash can also be submitted to the Jay Stream Innovation Center.

Please purchase your online order or return the form below to the Innovation Center by Friday December 22nd.
