Spring has finally sprung here in Carol Stream! Be sure to get out and get some fresh air and enjoy the long-lost sunshine! May 1st-7th is Screen Free week! A packet was sent home with pledge cards and activities. If you need an additional packet, please contact the school office. There will also be a Family night Oberweis on May 8th, so be sure to include that in your plans!!

Our final PTA meeting of the year will be on 5/22 at 6:30 in the LLC. Please plan on attending as we will be voting on our new board members and there may or may not be cookies! ☺ Every vote counts and yes, your kids are always welcome!

We are also in the process of filling some open committees for the next school year. We will be providing more information on these committees also. If you have a few hours to spare, or a few hours each month, we have something for you! In addition, it's a great opportunity to help our school and your kiddos!

Secretary - take notes and type them up at our meetings. Perfect if you'd like to attend the meetings and keep up to date on school happenings!

Office calendar - Coordinate our volunteers to create a fun calendar in our office. Perfect for that creative streak in you!

Pancake Breakfast - Coordinate the annual Holiday Pancake Breakfast. A bit more time consuming, but it only happens once a year and we have lots of volunteers!

DuPage Children's Museum - work with the school staff to coordinate dates for this awesome program.

Fundraisers - Coordinate 2-3 fundraisers a year. We would love to hear your ideas that will benefit our school!

Holiday Workshop - Purchase items and coordinate our Holiday Workshop. Once a year, coordinating volunteers and purchasing the items.

Reflections - A visual arts program offered thru the national PTA. This happens in the fall, just communicate the program to the students, and watch for their awesome works of art!

Raffle Baskets - Procure and coordinate raffle baskets for our events. Perfect if you have some great contacts willing to donate awesome items!

School Picnics - Plan 2 picnics a year. The two picnics are the back-to-school picnic and the end of the year picnic.

Staff Appreciation - Let our staff know they are appreciated. Plan multiple lunches or other events.

Volunteer Organizer - Obtain volunteers for things like picture day and vision and hearing screening

We would love your help! Come to the PTA meeting to find out more!

Turn Markers

Into Energy!

Dear Parents,

I'm excited to remind you about a very special program I'm coordinating at our school in conjunction with Crayola. It's called Crayola ColorCycle – an amazing new program devised to turn used markers into energy!

All around Heritage Lakes students and teachers are collecting used markers that are ready to be discarded. The markers are sent to a facility where they are converted into clean fuel. This fuel can be used to power vehicles, heat homes, cook meals and more!

Please help support our efforts by sending your kids in with any used markers you may have around the house – even non-Crayola brands. Drop-off boxes will be located around the school for your child to deposit the markers.

Thank you in advance for participating! With the help of parents like you across the country, the Crayola ColorCycle program can keep tons of plastic out of landfills each year.

Remember don't throw out that used marker—ColorCycle it!

Sincerely,

Susan Camberis
2016-2017 Ecology/Recycling PTA Chair

Insect Bites

There are many different types of insects that bite or sting. Some bites and stings, like those from fire ants, wasps, hornets, and bees, are painful. Some can also spread illnesses, such as Lyme disease (black-legged tick), Rocky Mountain spotted fever (dog or wood tick), and West Nile virus (mosquito). The bites of other bugs, such as mosquitoes, mites, and fleas, are itchy and uncomfortable, but usually harmless.

Mosquito Bites

A mosquito bite is a very itchy round, red, or pink skin bump. Mosquito bites can spread the West Nile virus, though this is rare: Only 1 percent of mosquitoes in areas where infected mosquitoes have been found actually have been shown to have the virus. Still, it's important to recognize the symptoms, which commonly appear 5 to 15 days after the bite: headaches and body aches, fever, and possibly swollen glands and a skin rash. People with a more severe infection may develop encephalitis, with symptoms such as stiffness in the neck, a severe headache, disorientation, high fever, and convulsions.

Bed Bug Bites

It does not hurt when the bed bug bites, but many people develop an allergic reaction to the saliva of the bug usually between 24 hours and three days later, resulting in a raised, red skin bump or welt that is intensely itchy and inflamed. Both the welt and the itchiness may last for several days. Bed bug bites can occur anywhere on the body, but are typically on uncovered areas, such as the neck, face, arms, and hands — and are often found in a row of two or more.

Spider Bites

Most spider bites are not poisonous; symptoms are much like those for a bee sting, including red skin, swelling, and pain at the bug bite site. Some people may develop an allergic reaction, with symptoms such as tightness in the chest, breathing problems, swallowing difficulties, or swelling of the face. A poisonous black widow spider bite can cause a much more severe reaction. The bug bite itself may or may not be painful, but 30 to 40 minutes later pain and swelling may begin in the area and within eight hours you may experience muscle pain and rigidity, stomach and back pain, nausea and vomiting, and breathing difficulties. Always seek medical attention immediately if you could have been bitten by a poisonous spider.

Brown Recluse Bites

The brown recluse spider is another poisonous spider found in the United States. Some people feel a small sting followed immediately by a sharp pain, while others don't realize they've gotten a bug bite until hours later — in four to eight hours, the bite may become more painful and look like a bruise or blister with a blue-purple area around it. It may become crusty and turn dark a few days later. Be sure to seek medical attention immediately if you could have been bitten by a poisonous spider.

Tick Bites

Some tick bites can be dangerous. Blacklegged ticks, formerly known as deer ticks, may carry Lyme disease, and dog ticks may spread Rocky Mountain spotted fever (RMSF). Symptoms of Lyme disease include a skin rash in the pattern of rings, much like a bull's-eye on a target, that can appear up to a month after the bug bite, fever, fatigue, headaches, muscle and joint aches, and irregular heart rhythms. Symptoms of RMSF include fever, headache, muscle aches, and a skin rash that begins on the ankles and wrists after a few days of fever and later spreads to the rest of the body.

Flea Bites

Symptoms of flea bites — which may begin within hours of the bug bite — include a small, red skin rash that may or may not bleed, itching (possibly severe), hives, and swelling around an injury or sore. Fleabites — which tend to be in groups of three or four — are more common on the ankles, armpits, around your waist, and in the bends of your knees and elbows. The rash turns white when you press on it and tends to get larger or spread over time.

Bee Stings

Bee stings cause a sharp pain — much like a shot from your doctor — that may continue for a few minutes, then fade to a dull, aching feeling. The area may still feel sore to the touch a few days later. A red skin bump with white around it may appear around the site of the sting. The area may also itch and feel hot to the touch. If you have been stung before, your body may also have an immune response to the venom in the sting, resulting in swelling where the sting occurred or in an entire area of the body.

Lice Bites

Lice bites are tiny red skin spots on the shoulders, neck, and scalp. Because these bug bites are so small, they don't hurt, but they do itch a lot. Some people may develop a larger, uncomfortable skin rash. Continual scratching of the itchy spots could lead to an infection with symptoms including swollen lymph nodes and tender, red skin. An infected bug bite may also ooze and crust over, and will need to be treated by a doctor.

Ant Bites and Stings

Some types of ants, like fire ants, are venomous. Ant bites and stings are typically painful and result in a red skin bump. Fire ants bite first to hold on and then sting. Fire ant stings produce a sharp pain and a burning sensation and result in a white, fluid-filled pustule or blister a day or two after the sting, lasting from three to eight days. There may also be itchiness, redness, and swelling at the site. Carpenter ants bite and, although they are not venomous, they spray formic acid into the bite, which causes a burning feeling.

Mite Bites

Mite bites do not usually spread disease, but they often irritate the skin and cause intense itching. Itch mites usually feed on insects, but will bite other animals, including people. Their bites usually go unnoticed until itchy, red marks develop, which may look like a skin rash. Chiggers are a form of mite. They bite to inject their saliva so that they can liquefy and eat skin. In response to the chigger bite, the skin around the bite hardens. The surrounding skin becomes irritated and inflamed, and an itchy red welt develops.

Scabies Mite Bites

Female scabies mites burrow into the skin to lay eggs. When the eggs hatch, the larvae come to the skin surface, begin to molt, and burrow back into the skin to feed. This results in a skin rash that may look like acne pimples and create intense itching. The itching tends to be worse at night. You may also notice light, thin lines on the skin where the mites have burrowed. Scabies mite bites and burrow lines are commonly found in the folds of the skin, including between the fingers, in the bends at the wrists and knees, and under jewelry on the wrists and fingers.
