

COMMUNITY RELATIONSNo Solicitation

No personal solicitation regarding the sale of goods or services is permitted in the school buildings or administrative offices, or on the school grounds, of School District 93. In addition, telephone solicitation of students, staff or administrative personnel regarding the sale of goods or services is strictly prohibited.

Any person interested in marketing goods or services to School District 93, or to students, staff members, or administrative personnel in the District, should send a letter of introduction, or a written proposal, to the District business office. The person submitting such information to the business office shall be contacted by the District and advised of the procedures to be followed in connection with such purchase, should the District be interested in acquiring such goods or services.

Persons attempting to solicit the sale of goods or services by telephone or in person shall be advised of the contents of this policy, and directed to follow the procedures contained herein. Any person who repeatedly attempts to solicit the sale of goods or services by telephone or on school district property in contravention of this policy shall be called to the attention of local law enforcement authorities.
