

COMMUNITY RELATIONSNews Conferences and Interviews

News conferences shall be held as deemed appropriate by the Board of Education or the Superintendent.

Interviews with staff members may be a useful tool to provide the news media with information regarding District programs and policies. However, individuals shall not speak for the District in such interviews without prior approval from the principal with regard to a single building or from the Superintendent with regard to the District. Individuals shall also avoid answering questions or making statements beyond the scope of their knowledge and responsibility.
