

COMMUNITY RELATIONSDistrict Sponsored Information

Publications issued in the name of the District (or its schools) shall possess a high quality of editorial content and an effective format. The exercise of appropriate economy in materials and production is expected as long as the main purpose is not jeopardized.

All publications shall identify the originating school, the originating department, and the District, and shall include the name of the Superintendent, the principal and/or the author, and the date of publication.

Adopted: May 12, 1983
Revised: March 8, 2001