

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SCHOOL DISTRICT BUSINESS OFFICIAL

A Chief School Business Official may be employed by the Board of Education to provide professional services to the District. Designated the District's Assistant Superintendent for Business Services, he or she shall be responsible for the management of school business and financial matters.

The Chief School Business Official shall take directions from and report to the Superintendent.

First-time experience as a Chief School Business Official on or after July 1, 1977, requires that the person be certified in accordance with the Illinois School Code. Prior to that date, previous experience as an Assistant Superintendent for Business Services shall be credited as the equivalent of certification.
