RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES - STUDENT CONDUCT

The Board of Education expects student conduct to contribute to a productive learning climate. Individual rights are to be honored and protected; however, the rights of one individual shall not take precedence over those of another individual or of the group itself. All students shall have equal rights and equal responsibilities in their demeanor in the classroom or on school property.

The Board endorses the following principles of student conduct:

1. Respect for law and those given authority to administer it shall be required of all students. This includes following school rules as well as general provisions of the law regarding minors.
2. Respect for the rights of others, consideration of their privileges, and cooperative citizenship shall be expected of all members of the school community.
3. Respect for real and personal property, pride in one's work, achievement commensurate with one's ability, and exemplary personal standards of courtesy, decency, honesty and wholesome attitudes shall be maintained.
4. Respect for individual worth to the end that every student shall be assisted to the limit of his/her ability is an obligation of the school. Diligence and a sincere desire to profit from the opportunity offered are obligations of the school as well as the student.
