

Coach Enright is in his first year as Head Coach of the 7th grade boys, he is also in his first year as a Paraprofessional at Stratford. Mr. Enright played basketball, and ran cross country and track at Immaculate Conception High School in Elmhurst. While at Southern Illinois University, he was the student manager for the men's basketball team which won back to back conference championships and NCAA Tournament berths. He has coached basketball for 24 years at the 8th grade, AAU, and high school levels. He was a varsity assistant on 3 Regional Championship Teams at St. Edward High School in Elgin and head coach of the (AAU) DeKalb Bengals and the (TRAVEL) Illinois Shamrocks. Nine of his former athletes have gone on to play in college. Mr. Enright, his wife and four children live in South Elgin and his favorite coaching moment was leading his two sons to a 155-2 Tri-Valley Conference Grade School Record.