

Coach Stewart is an 8th grade teacher at Stratford. He grew up watching his dad referee games every Saturday and has been playing for over 20 years in various levels of competition. This is his 5th year coaching boy's basketball, and his first at Stratford. He is also the 8th grade girls' team coach. He is looking forward to trying to bring home Stratford's first IPAC conference title!