

INSTRUCTION

ARTICULATION

The ongoing communication from teacher to teacher, grade level to grade level, and Building Leadership Team to Building Leadership Team with regard to the scope and sequence of course content is of primary importance. The Superintendent or his/her designee is responsible for the maintenance of curricular materials designed to facilitate this process.

In addition, the Superintendent shall make provisions for periodic updating and review of course content and sequencing, and the inservicing of new staff with regard to the District's curriculum.

Any changes of a substantial nature shall be approved by the Superintendent and/or the Board of Education.
