

INSTRUCTION

TEACHER AIDES

The Superintendent may authorize, with the approval of the Board, the employment of instructional aides in situations which, in his/her judgment, warrant this type of assistance.

Persons being considered for employment in aide positions shall be interviewed and approved by the Building Principal.

Job descriptions shall be available for the work to be performed generally by instructional aides, with suitable modifications noted for specific situations when necessary. Immediate supervision shall be under the professional staff member of the program to which the aide is assigned.
