

INSTRUCTIONHUMAN RELATIONS EDUCATION

School District 93 is committed to the goal of educating students to function effectively and cooperatively in a pluralistic society. The attainment of this goal shall be fostered by the use of materials reflecting:

1. Respect for one's self and others, regardless of economic status, intellectual or physical ability, sex, age, race, color, religion, creed, ethnic origin.
2. Respect for cultural differences.
3. Respect for the economic, political, and social rights of others.
4. Respect for the rights of others to seek and maintain their own identities.

The District shall make certain that the curriculum emphasizes a positive human relations attitude. Instructional materials at all grade levels shall reflect the history, contributions and culture of various ethnic and racial groups in our society.

Adopted: May 12, 1983
Revised: November 4, 1999